MEMBERSHIP

Those with qualification or experience in mining engineering, science or technology can apply for Corporate Membership as outlined below. Non-Corporate memberships are available to a wider public.

CORPORATE MEMBERSHIP

Honorary Fellows are elected by the Council and normally are those who have distinguished themselves by their attainments, or who have contributed significantly to the advancement of mining or other branches of technology.

Fellows. Fellows of the North of England Institute of Mining and Mechanical Engineers must be over 30 years of age and either;

- A. Have some professional qualifications or certifications in mining engineering as well as at least five years of relevant experience; or,
- B. Be someone whose position or attainments in science and technology warrant their election as a Fellow. This is the decision of Council.

Fellows may use the title FNEIMME to describe their membership of the Institute. The cost of Fellowship is £40 annually.

Members. Members must be over 25 years of age and must be working towards the qualifications needed to become a Fellow of the Institute. The Council will from time to time prescribe which examinations Members are required to pass. The cost of Membership is £40 annually.

NON-CORPORATE MEMBERS

Associate Members. Associate Members shall comprise of persons of not less than 23 years who in the opinion of the Council must at the time of their candidature be engaged in mining engineering or an ancillary branch, or in a science associated with Mining Engineering and shall satisfy the Council that they are in the process of qualifying as a Corporate Member or otherwise approved by the Council and shall have passed such examinations as the Council may from time to time prescribe.

The cost for Associate Membership is £30 annually.
